RESOLUTION 2020-08

INTRODUCED BY MAYOR AND COUNCIL AS A WHOLE

A RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCES TO THE FAMILY OF GLYN CHESTER GOINS

WHEREAS, the Village of Oakwood sadly notes the passing of Oakwood resident, Glyn Goins, at the young age of 57 on January 18, 2020; and

WHEREAS, Glyn was born March 7, 1963 to Collins J. and Elayne Gaither Goins in the Cleveland area; and

WHEREAS, he graduated with the Bedford City Schools class of 1981; and

WHEREAS, he was employed by M & M Trucking as a Class A truck driver; and

WHEREAS, although he was a divorcee, he enjoyed spending time with his son, Brandon Goins; and

WHEREAS, Glyn had an intimidating exterior, but he held people close with a loving heart. He cared for his mother over the last 11 years and was once told, he should go to school to get paid for what he does because he does it with such passion. He simply responded, this type of care is reserved for family; and

WHEREAS, everyone who met him quickly became familiar with his room brightening, soft warm smile that could dispel the foulest mood. He loved people and spent much of his time socializing. Glyn devoted his life to helping others in whatever capacity he could. He also had a high level of respect for his elders. This gentle man also enjoyed traveling, bowling, swimming and watching comedies on tv; and

WHEREAS, when he was in high school, one day a new student arrived at the bus stop who was obviously displaying signs of intimidation and fear at her new surroundings. Glyn simply motioned for her to sit next to him and welcomed her to her new school. The two remained friends throughout their high school careers; and

WHEREAS, Glyn Chester Goins will be sorely missed by his son, Brandon, his siblings, Andrea, William (Candace) and Melrose (LeRoy), his nieces and nephews along with a host of friends and neighbors; and

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the Village of Oakwood, County of Cuyahoga, and State of Ohio that:

SECTION 1. The Village of Oakwood, the Mayor, Village Council, and all elected and appointed officials express their most sincere condolences to the family of Glyn Chester Goins and hope that the many warm memories of such a fine and caring person comforts them in their time of loss.
