RESOLUTION 2020-83

INTRODUCED BY MAYOR AND COUNCIL

A RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCES TO THE FAMILY OF ROSALIE SCIMONE

WHEREAS, Rosalie Scimone passed away at the age of 98 on October 10, 2020; and

WHEREAS, Rosalie was born on December 30, 1921 in Meadville, Pennsylvania, moving to Cleveland, Ohio where she attended school; and

WHEREAS, since she was the oldest, during hard times, quit school after 7th to care for her family. She found employment as a nurse's aide at various hospitals while caring for her family; and

WHEREAS, she married her beloved Peter September 1, 1945 and the two had a lifelong love affair having been inseparable 75 years until his passing January 1, 2020; and

WHEREAS, the two moved to Walton Hills. She and her husband Peter loved to take their family bowling after church every Sunday. Seeing the need for more bowling opportunities, they built Roseland Bowling Lanes on their farm on Broadway Avenue. It opened August 1961 with a handful of lanes. They quickly realized; bowling was a well-liked family activity. Over the years, they added on several times and today it is equipped with 50 lanes. The establishment became a favorite pastime where many residents, families, and avid bowlers could exercise their ability to achieve the coveted strike! The alleys have become home to many tournaments and school districts' bowling teams along with students participating in the Bowling Strikes program honing their skills. This family owned business continues to thrive. She and Peter's desire was to allow anyone to bowl, no matter their age or ability; and

WHEREAS, Rosalie was a whiz at math. Her children would try to trip her up by using their calculators to compute numbers, she would have the answer before they could complete the complicated equation. Numbers were one of her passions, so it is ironic that she died at 4:44pm on 10-10-2020; and

WHEREAS, this classy lady made sure her hair was done and jewelry matched the outfit for the day. She also ensured she always wore lipstick, even when cleaning the house; and

WHEREAS, this lively woman who was the disciplinarian of the home, was also her family's biggest fan and cheerleader. Being Italian, she liked to cook pasta. She would almost always have others at the table for a meal besides her family. Her children would ask, Did you meet someone at the bus stop today? Rosalie had a big heart for others and never met a stranger.

When the family grew too large to assemble at their home on the holidays and the many get-togethers throughout the year, it was then held at Roseland; and

WHEREAS, Rosalie and Peter danced the polka in the kitchen while cooking with the children looking on., Peter and Rosalie also enjoyed baking together. They involved the children in boxing cookies sending them to family and friends both near and far. Her favorite cookie was her infamous pink-iced Italian anise cookies; and

WHEREAS, Rosalie and Peter enjoyed traveling including trips to Italy visiting relatives back home and spending their winters in Florida. If they were home, it was only because friends or family were visiting; and

WHEREAS, she was never idle and her hands were never stationary. Every member of her family has an afghan she lovingly crocheted. The only things on this earth she loved more than life itself was her husband and family and she lived her life to the fullest. This lively woman went to Heaven with nothing on her bucket list. She accomplished everything she wanted in life; and

WHEREAS, when asked what she attributed her longevity to, she would respond, Shaklee vitamins. Both she and Peter outlived everything they owned, even their life insurance policies; and

WHEREAS, her family loved Rosalie and Peter as fiercely as they were loved. Their son built a small cottage on his property where the two could live their remaining years together when they were not able to live on their own: and

WHEREAS, her grandson, Rick Beccia, and her siblings, Jerry Radicelli, Frank Radicella (Dolores), Cecelia Carey (Louis), brother-in-law, Peter Stamatis, sister-in-law, Mary Scimone, Mamie Lunardi (Fred), Marie Gutowski (Merryl) all preceded her in death; and

WHEREAS, Rosalie (nee Radicella) Sciome truly was a Proverbs 31 woman and was a blessing to all who knew and loved her. She will be sorely missed by her children; Anthony (Jan Vanderneut), Laurretta Bradford (Bill), Anna Marie Slaby (Charles) and John (Karen), her grandchildren; Christina Somlitz (Eric), Lisa Romito (Michael), Dawn Zirolì (Clem Jr.), Bryan (Heather), Kim McMullen (Russ), Tammy Mazure, Chuck Slaby (Nicole), Rose Scimone, Amber Scimone (Brandon Ernst) and Jody Scimone (Ken Murray); her 22 great-grandchildren and her three great-great grandchildren, her sister-in-law, Casimina Radicelli, Josephine Stamatis, Mario Scimone, and friends; and

NOW THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT by the Village of Oakwood, County of Cuyahoga, and State of Ohio, that:

SECTION 1. The Village Council and Mayor wish to express their most sincere condolences to the family of Rosalie Scimone and hope the fond memories of such a fine, caring person comforts them in their loss.

SECTION 2. The Clerk is hereby authorized to present a copy of this resolution to the family of Rosalie Scimone.

SECTION 3. This Resolution shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption by this Council and approved by the Mayor, otherwise from and after the earliest period allowed by law

Founded in 1961, Roseland Lanes is family owned and operated bowling center that offers a variety of leisure activities for children, adults and senior citizens. It offers the Bowling Strikes program for the development of bowling skills in middle and high school students. The center organizes a variety of events, including holiday and birthday parties, Halloween nights, corporate gatherings and business meetings. Roseland Lanes also conducts field trips to build teamwork, self-esteem and sportsmanship. The center organizes leagues for people of all ages, as well as hosts various fundraising events. Roseland Lanes operates a pro shop that sells bowling supplies, including balls, bags and shoes. Less

Additional comments from Ann Marie for Rosalie Scimone

Attributed her longevity to? her husband, love of family, lived for her family. Everyone was family to her. Favorite TV = wheel of fortune oved every night up to her last day on this earth.

Music= polka, danced with husband. Italian fests and danced there. Danced in kitchen when cooking.

Cooked – pasta, her cookies made them together-send them in boxes to all family Italian anise cookies, Pink frosted Italian cookies. baking favorite thing to do. Afghans for the grandkids. Hands got bad couldn't do it anymore. Always make something for everybody.

Christmas every eve all family over make Italian meal. Still celebrate Christmas eve. Continue her tradition. Family get together in summer. Every weekend was a family day. Have it at Roseland because family got so big. 19 grandchildren alone. 22 great grands and 3 great great grands. All came to family functions.

Church Sunday no missing that very strict she was the disciplinarian when dad came home strict Italian mother. But her family fiercely.

Liked to do-go out not sat home. If at home invited friends for dinner. Did you meet someone at the bus stop today? Always cook and bake for everybody.

Always wanted company or visiting people. Around family always.

Lived life to the fullest l the vitamins she took. Yell at kids get yourself on vitamins. Shaklee vitamins faithfully– good life. She was on one pill when she died. Got to do everything she wanted. Italy to see family Florida for winter, traveled a lot. Life stopped a year ago she couldn't walk any longer. Would just pick up and go. They outlived everything they owned. Every life insurance policy, son built them a cottage next to heir house in west Farmington, last three years lived there. Never in nursing home. A blessing to have them die at home that is what they wanted.

Hair always be done. Earrings had to match outfits. Always put together at all times. Lipstick on to clean the house. Classy lady.
